Health and Social Science Research Seminar

Jonah Levy, Edward Miguel, and Neil Smelser
Fall 2010

590L University Hall
Tuesdays and Thursdays
10:00am – 12:00pm (unless otherwise noted)
Followed by lunch at 12:00pm on Tuesdays

Thur. August 26  “What Do We Get for Our Health Expenditures?”
Edward Miguel, PhD, Professor of Economics

Jonah Levy, PhD, Associate Professor of Political Science

Thur. September 2  No Seminar – American Political Science Association Conference

Tues. September 7  “The Practitioner-Patient Relationship and Its Evolution over Time: Special Focus on Conflicts of Interest”
Neil Smelser, PhD, Professor Emeritus of Sociology

Thur. September 9  No Seminar – Rosh Hashanah (afternoon seminar will meet at 1pm)

Tues. September 14  “Markets and Market Failure in Health Care”
Edward Miguel, PhD, Professor of Economics

Thur. September 16  “Combining Health Care Markets and Universal Coverage: The Political Challenges”
Jonah Levy, PhD, Associate Professor of Political Science

Tues. September 21  “Inequality in the Delivery of Health Services: The Special Case of Race”
Neil Smelser, PhD, Professor Emeritus of Sociology

Thur. September 23  No Seminar

Cybelle Fox, PhD, Assistant Professor of Sociology

Wed. September 29  “The Effects of Health Insurance Coverage on Utilization of Medical Services”
Michael Anderson, PhD, Assistant Professor of Agricultural and Resource Economics

Thurs. September 30  No Seminar

Tues. October 5  2nd Year Scholar Presentations – Postponed ’till Wed. November 17
10:00am – 1:00pm, followed by lunch

Thurs. October 7  title forthcoming
Paul Pierson, PhD, Professor of Political Science